---- CROSS-REFERENCE TO RELATED APPLICATIONS----

This case is a divisional of application Ser. No. 10/308025, filed on Dec. 3, 2002, now patent No. 6,643,922, which is a divisional of application Ser. No. 09/333984, filed on Jun. 16, 1999, now patent No. 6,512,386.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claim 20 is allowed over the prior art.

The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter:

Claim 20 is allowed because the examiner found out that applicants' argument in the Remarks filed on 12/7/07 is persuasive. Applicants argued that the references Gleason in view of Hino does not teach or suggest "the wiring board being directly reinforced by a reinforcing member" (see last paragraph, page 2 of the Remark). Applicants also argued that Gleason in view of Hino does not teach or suggest "the wiring board and the reinforcing member collectively molded and bonded to each other" (see third paragraph, page 3 of the Remarks).

Art Unit: 2829

During further search, the examiner found out that the prior art in the record does not teach or suggest a device testing contactor comprising the wiring board and the reinforcing member collectively molded and bonded each other.
